Working Together

by Dr. Stephen Inglis and Dr. Sarah Pashagumskum

Synopsis of Lecture: For this event, Drs. Inglis and Pashagumskum will describe some efforts by museum specialists and First Nations in Canada to collaborate on museums and cultural centres.

About the Speakers:

Dr. Stephen Inglis teaches curatorial studies and Asian Art at Carleton University in Ottawa. He is the former Director General of Research and Collections at the Canadian Museum of Civilization (now History) and former Executive Director of the Aanishaaikumikw Cree Cultural Institute in Eeyou Istchee (northern Quebec).

Dr. Sarah Pashagumskum is originally from the community of Chisasibi, in the northern part of the Cree territory, Eeyou Istchee. She is a strong contributor to the preservation of First Nations culture and history as well as to education. Dr. Pashagumskum is Director of Annishaaukamikw Cree Cultural Institute and currently the Chair of the Cree School Board.

About India Canada Friendship Circle

India Canada Friendship Circle (ICFC), a non-profit Canadian organization, operating in Ottawa since 2004 and conducting lectures by prominent speakers, encourages dialogue on India in a non-religious, non-partisan and harmonious environment. The words "friendship" and "circle" in its name, convey an explicit desire to forge and maintain close ties among Canadians with an interest in India.

ICFC's mission is to promote an intercultural relationship between India and Canada in the areas of philosophy, history, literature, the arts and sciences through prominent speakers.
